✠ Collect (in unison)

Almighty God, you have given your only Son to be for us a sacrifice for sin, and also an example of godly life: Give us grace to receive thankfully the fruits of his redeeming work, and to follow daily in the blessed steps of his most holy life; through Jesus Christ your Son our Lord, who lives and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit, one God, now and for ever. Amen.

Kyrie

from Missa brevis in B-flat, K 275

W. A. Mozart (1756–1791)

Kyrie eleison, Christe eleison, Kyrie eleison.

Lord, have mercy, Christ, have mercy, Lord, have mercy.

Assurance of Pardon

The Chaplain: If we confess our sins, God who is faithful and just will forgive our sins, and cleanse us from all unrighteousness.

All: Thanks be to God.

Lesson

1 Kings 2:10–12, 3:3–14

Lector: A lesson from the First Book of Kings, chapter 2, verses 10–12, and chapter 3, verses 3–14:

Then David slept with his ancestors and was buried in the city of David. The time that David reigned over Israel was forty years; he reigned seven years in Hebron and thirty-three years in Jerusalem. So Solomon sat on the throne of his father David, and his kingdom was firmly established.

Solomon loved the LORD, walking in the statutes of his father David, except that he sacrificed and offered incense at the high places. The king went to Gibeon to sacrifice there, for that was the principal high place; Solomon used to offer a thousand burnt offerings on that altar. At Gibeon the LORD appeared to Solomon in a dream by night, and God said, "Ask what I should give you." And Solomon said, "You have shown great and steadfast love to your servant my father David because he walked before you in faithfulness, in righteousness, and in uprightness of heart toward you, and you have kept for him this great and steadfast love and have given him a son to sit on his throne today. And now, O LORD my God, you have made your servant king in place of my father David, although I am only a little child; I do not know how to go out or come in. And your servant is in the midst of the people whom you have chosen, a great people so numerous they cannot be numbered or counted. Give your servant, therefore, an understanding mind to govern your people, able to discern between good and evil, for who can govern this great people of yours?" It pleased the Lord that Solomon had asked this. God said to him, "Because you have asked this and have not asked for yourself long life or riches or for the life of your enemies but have asked for yourself understanding to discern what is right, I now do according to your word. Indeed, I give you a wise and discerning mind; no one like you has been before you, and no one like you shall arise after you. I give you also what you have not asked, both riches and honor all your life; no other king shall compare with you. If you will walk in my ways, keeping my statutes and my commandments, as your father David walked, then I will lengthen your life."

Lector: The Word of the Lord.

People: Thanks be to God.

Anthem

Immitten angelus Domini

G. P. da Palestrina (1525–1594)

Immitten angelus Domini in circuitu timentium eum et eripiet eos, gustate et videte quoniam suavis est Dominus.

*The Angel of the Lord shall encamp round about them that fear Him, and shall deliver them:
O taste and see that the Lord is sweet.*

Offertory for Pentecost XIV

Lesson

Romans 12:9–21

Lector: A lesson from the epistle to the Romans, chapter 12, verses 9–21:

Let love be genuine; hate what is evil, hold fast to what is good; love one another with brotherly affection; outdo one another in showing honor. Never flag in zeal, be aglow with the Spirit, serve the Lord. Rejoice in your hope, be patient in tribulation, be constant in prayer. Contribute to the needs of the saints, practice hospitality. Bless those who persecute you; bless and do not curse them. Rejoice with those who rejoice, weep with those who weep. Live in harmony with one another; do not be haughty, but associate with the lowly; never be conceited. Repay no one evil for evil, but take thought for what is noble in the sight of all. If possible, so far as it depends upon you, live peaceably with all. Beloved, never avenge yourselves, but leave it to the wrath of God; for it is written, “Vengeance is mine, I will repay, says the Lord.” No, “if your enemy is hungry, feed him; if he is thirsty, give him drink; for by so doing you will heap burning coals upon his head.” Do not be overcome by evil, but overcome evil with good.

Lector: The Word of the Lord.

People: Thanks be to God.

Psalm 111

The antiphon is sung twice, first by choir alone, and then by choir and congregation.

Cantor: Praise the LORD! I will give thanks to the LORD with my whole heart, in the company of the upright, in the congregation.

People: Great are the works of the LORD, studied by all who delight in them.

Cantor: Full of honor and majesty are the works of the Lord whose righteousness endures forever,
People: *Who has gained renown by his wonderful deeds;
the LORD is gracious and merciful.*
Cantor: The Lord provides food for those who fear him;
and is ever mindful of his covenant.
People: The Lord has shown his people the power of his works, in giving them the heritage of the nations.
Cantor: The works of his hands are faithful and just;
all his precepts are trustworthy.
People: *They are established forever and ever,
to be performed with faithfulness and uprightness.*
Cantor: The Lord sent redemption to his people;
he has commanded his covenant forever.
Holy and awesome is God's name.
People: *The fear of the LORD is the beginning of wisdom;
all those who practice it have a good understanding.
The praise of the Lord endures forever. ♪*

✠ Gloria Patri from 'Magnificat in G major' C. V. Stanford (1852–1924)

Glory be to the Father, and to the Son, and to the Holy Ghost;
As it was in the beginning, is now and ever shall be, world without end. Amen.

✠ Gospel Lesson John 6:51–58

Lector: The Holy Gospel according to St. John, chapter 6, verses 51–58:
People: Glory to you, O Lord.

I am the living bread that came down from heaven. Whoever eats of this bread will live forever, and the bread that I will give for the life of the world is my flesh." The Jews then disputed among themselves, saying, "How can this man give us his flesh to eat?" So Jesus said to them, "Very truly, I tell you, unless you eat the flesh of the Son of Man and drink his blood, you have no life in you. Those who eat my flesh and drink my blood have eternal life, and I will raise them up on the last day, for my flesh is true food, and my blood is true drink. Those who eat my flesh and drink my blood abide in me and I in them. Just as the living Father sent me and I live because of the Father, so whoever eats me will live because of me. This is the bread that came down from heaven, not like that which the ancestors ate, and they died. But the one who eats this bread will live forever."

Lector: The Gospel of the Lord.
People: Praise to you, Lord Christ.

Prayers of the People

The Lord's Prayer

Our Father, who art in heaven, hallowed be thy name, thy kingdom come, thy will be done, on earth as it is in heaven. Give us this day our daily bread. And forgive us our trespasses, as we forgive those who trespass against us. And lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil. For thine is the kingdom, and the power, and the glory, for ever and ever. Amen.

Response

MARYTON; H. Percy Smith (1825–1898)

Teach me thy patience; still with thee, in closer, dearer company,
In work that keeps faith sweet and strong, in trust that triumphs over wrong.

In hope that sends a shining ray, far down the future's broad'ning way,
In peace that only thou canst give, with thee, O Master, let me live. Charles Wesley (1707–1788)
