

STUDENTS

What would you like to report?

1. Sexual Harassment or sexual assault

Would you like your complaint to remain confidential?

No

Off-campus law enforcement

On-campus reporting:
Title IX office, Boston University Police, Equal Opportunity Office, Human Resources

Off Campus Counseling, Advocacy Resources, and Legal Resources

Yes

On Campus: Office of the Ombuds, University Chaplains, or Sexual Assault Response and Prevention (SARP)

2. Gender based harassment or discrimination

Does the complaint fall under Sexual misconduct?

Yes

Go to Section 1 (sexual harassment or sexual assault)

No

On-campus reporting:
Equal Opportunity Office, Human Resources, Dean's office

3. Racial discrimination or bias

Off-Campus

(emergencies or immediate threats to life or property):
Boston Police
Department, 911

On-campus Reporting resources:
Office of the Ombuds, Human Resources representative, reporting serious incidents through the University's confidential mechanism, Ethics Point, and, in cases where a student believes that bias has become discrimination, the Equal Opportunity Office, Boston University Police (for emergencies or immediate threats to life or property)

4. Disability discrimination

On-campus reporting:
Equal Opportunity Office, Dean's office, Disability Services Office

Off-Campus

Emergencies or immediate threats to life or property:
Boston Police. Other instances: Americans with Disabilities Act Complaint Form

5. Workplace violence

Does the complaint fall under Sexual misconduct?

Yes

Go to Section 1 (sexual harassment or sexual assault)

No

Would you like to report imminent threats, violent incidents, or dangerous or emergency situations?

No

Would you like to report verbal abuse, perceived intimidation, harassment, or other non-emergency situations?

Contact BU Office of the Ombuds, or Boston University Police

Yes

Call 911, Boston University Police, or hit the button on a blue emergency call box