

THE ROLE OF CONFIDENTIAL RESOURCE PROVIDERS

How they help you navigate your options at BU

OVERVIEW

Confidential Resource Providers (CRPs) are free resources for any BU community member (student, faculty, or staff).

1

SUPPORTIVE MEASURES

CRPs can help you access available school- or work-based supportive measures related to academics, residence life, and employment.

2

RESOLUTION OPTIONS

CRPs can help you review available options, including legal resources through enforcement agencies and administrative procedures at BU.

3

RESOURCES

CRPs can review counseling and medical health services available on campus and through local community-based rape crisis or domestic violence centers.

4

PERSON OF SUPPORT

CRPs can accompany you to a meeting with the Office of Judicial Affairs or the Equal Opportunity Office as you navigate BU's response to sexual misconduct reports.

5

CONFIDENTIAL

CRPs are confidential and are not required to report potential policy violations to a member of the Title IX Team.

6

HOW CAN I CONTACT A CONFIDENTIAL RESOURCE PROVIDER?

BU has designated the following members of our community as CRPs. They have been trained and are prepared to discuss your reporting options.

Complainant: An alleged harmed individual
Respondent: One who allegedly caused harm

For Complainants & Respondents:

Sonia Mee
smee@bu.edu

Scan here to learn more about the role of Confidential Resource Providers or other confidential resources available:

