

What does a Boston University undergraduate look like?

Federal Student Aid (2023/2024)

40.0%

of BU undergraduates receive federal financial aid, totaling approximately $82.7 million.

20.2%

receive Pell Grants. The average Pell Grant is $5,855.

16.7%

receive Federal Work-Study

10.1%

receive SEOG
(Supplemental Educational Opportunity Grant)

bu.edu/federal

BU-Provided Aid

100%

BU meets the full financial need of first-year, first-time domestic students. For Pell Grant-eligible students, we cover their full need without loans.

47.6%

of BU undergraduates receive institutional aid (grants directly from BU).

$52,668

is the average institutional grant.

After Graduation

90.0%

of BU undergraduates complete their degree on time.

$26,262

typical (median) debt at graduation for a BU student with loans.

93%

of the Class of 2022 were settled within six months of graduation.

60% in full-time employment.

29% in graduate or professional school.

4% in other activities.

Demographics (2023/2024)

17,926

undergraduates from all 50 states and 118+ countries.

21.7%

First Generation

Race/Ethnicity

Published cost of attendance (tuition, room and board, and fees) is $83,278 for 2023/2024. But with student aid from BU and government sources, the average BU student pays $19,496 per year.