

Boston University School of Public Health
Department of Community Health Sciences

*Join us for an MCH/IH
Sponsored Forum:*

Leadership & Management for Quality Health Service Delivery

Wednesday, September 12
12:00-1:15pm
Crosstown, Room 460A

Presented by Members of the
MSH Leadership,
Management and Sustainability Program in Kenya

BUSPH Alum Karen Caldwell, Project Director of USAID funded and MSH implemented Leadership, Management and Sustainability Program in Kenya (LMS/Kenya). Prior to taking leadership for LMS/Kenya, Karen supported the E Africa regional portfolio in L&M for MSH and was based at the MSH Home Office in Cambridge working in Business and Resource Development. Karen received her Master in Public Health in 2006 from BUSPH as a dual concentrator in International Health and Maternal and Child. Karen worked for both the International Health Department and the DrPH program while she pursued her studies at BUSPH.

Ezekiel holds a Master of Science degree In Epidemiology and Biostatistics from the University of Witwatersrand South Africa, a Postgraduate Diploma in Public Health from Kenyatta University and Diploma in Health information systems from Kenya Medical Training College. He is currently undertaking a M.Sc. in Health system Management distance learning from Kenya Methodist University. Prior to joining MSH, he worked with Medical Emergency Relief International (MERLIN) Kenya and Somalia Programmes as Monitoring and Evaluation Manager, Family Health International, Ampath and Ministry of Health. He has vast experience in M&E and Health Information Systems. Ezekiel is a family man married to one wife and is blessed with two sons.

Meggie Munyi holds a diploma in Project Management and is currently pursuing a BSc in Leadership and Management. She has 6 years experience in management of projects funded by USAID and the EU. She is Leadership Development Program (LDP) Manager at MSH's LMS Kenya. She has been instrumental in the implementation of the LDP in Kenya, she is also an LDP facilitator. Prior to joining MSH/LMS Meggie was a Project Officer for a USAID funded project in African Wildlife Foundation, an international Non-Profit Organization.