

SPRING 2017

a low-stress way to start a new language!

GLOBALLY SPEAKING

test the waters
of a new language

ideal for beginners
with no
prior knowledge

open to all
students,
staff, and faculty

sponsored
by the NEH
Distinguished
Teaching
Professorship

for information:
glblspk@bu.edu

Globally Speaking provides informal, free, non-credit introductory language courses open to all members of the BU community.

Our evening classes will meet once or twice a week, starting the week of January 22nd and running through the week of March 19th.

Attend any or all sessions, according to your availability.

Are you looking for ways to have fun while exercising your mind? Curious about a new language, but don't have room in your schedule? If so, Globally Speaking is for you! This semester, you can begin your study of any or all of the world languages being offered:

ITALIAN / GERMAN / ZULU / JAPANESE

To reserve a seat, and for updates on where and when classes meet, connect with us at fb.com/bugloballyspeaking or via our website:

www.bu.edu/globallyspeaking

What students have said about their Globally Speaking experience:

"I love that Globally Speaking exists!" "The class is a fun, stress-free end to my day." "I like how it's laid-back and about learning, not about testing." "Everyone is there because they WANT to be." "I love the atmosphere!" "I love all the friends I made." "Perfect teaching!"