David Scott Palmer Student Research Grants on Latin America Spring 2022

The Latin American Studies Program at Boston University is pleased to announce this year's competition for funding to sponsor undergraduate research on Latin America. Projects on Latinx Studies will also be considered. In particular, this initiative is aimed at students completing Work for Distinction or other significant research projects for academic credit. The funds may be used for travel or for research, including research materials, such as books and archival material fees. We will also fund conference or workshop attendance to present papers between November 2021 and May 31, 2022. All receipts for reimbursement must be submitted to us on or before Monday, June 8, 2022 to be eligible for reimbursement. Receipts must be accompanied by a short report outlining your research and/or conference participation. The competition is open to any Boston University undergraduate student with relevant research interests.
