Participation Cap	Up to two BU Law students may participate each year.
Paris II Credit Requirement and Course Offerings	Students must complete 12 seminars of 24 hours each (288 hours of teaching in total), focusing on EU law. Seminars offered are indicated here: https://www.u-paris2.fr/fr/formations/offre-de-formation/llm/llm-european-law. Students may be permitted to replace an LL.M. seminar by another seminar taught in French within another program available at the European College of Paris. This requires the permission of the Director of Studies and the professor who teaches the seminar.
Visas	In order to pursue your studies France, you will need to obtain a student visa. Please visit the French Embassy's website for complete information: https://boston.consulfrance.org/Applying-for-a-French-Visa-in-The-US. Please be advised it is ultimately the responsibility of selected students to obtain their student visas. The process can take 1-2 months; thus, students should not wait until the last minute to apply for a visa.
Language	The language of instruction is English. Students fluent in French may, with the permission of the Paris Director, take one comparable course in French. Students who have no or little French may take French language classes (not for credit)

BU Academic Requirements	BU Law students must earn 26 BU Law credits during their full-year at Paris II. To receive 26 BU Law credits, students must (1) complete all compulsory courses offered in the LLM program and (2) complete a 2-credit independent paper under the supervision of a BU Law faculty member.
Independent Paper	All students will be required to pursue a two-credit independent study with a BU Law faculty member, to commence in June - August prior to the student's departure. The independent paper must be completed by the end of the academic year. It may (but need not) be on a topic related to European law. Journal or other credits may not be substituted for the independent paper.
